

COMING SOON

The Canterbury Disaster Salvage Team

(Disaster Preparedness, Education and Training for Heritage and Cultural Institutions)

Hands on Fire and Flood workshop in conjunction with the NZ Fire Service and

National Services Te Paerangi

Venue: Woolston Fire Training Facility Christchurch

Cost: $150.00 per person

Limited to: 30 participants max

Date: 26th and 27th Oct 2016

(Please note there will be 3 x free places – one per museum - for voluntary museums up to and including one paid member of staff).

Conditions apply

Contact Lynn Campbell on 03 9804972 or campbellhl@paradise.net.nz to express interest

Support

PROGRAMME

Disaster Salvage Workshop

Date: Oct 26th and 27th 2016

Venue: Woolston Fire Training Centre

Clothing Instructions

The workshop will be dirty and messy so don't wear anything new or special
Make sure you have totally enclosed comfortable waterproof shoes
No sandals, high heels or open toed shoes are allowed.
Also you will need heavy duty gloves when salvaging.
You will also be required to bring a helmet, fluorescent vest and gardening gloves. If this is an issue let Lynn know.
Possibly wet weather gear if raining.

Lunch

No lunch is provided so bring your own but there will be morning and afternoon tea supplied.
There are cafes close to the training facility and tea and coffee are provided.

Programme of events

8.45 Assemble at site (Map enclosed)
9 Introduction / Health and Safety Briefing
9.30 Fire Training Officer briefing on site and fire prevention and use of fire extinguishers
10.30 Morning Tea
11 Fire lit / Assessment of damage/ Split into three groups
11.30 Salvage workshop begins
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Salvage continues
3 Afternoon tea
4.30 Discussion and Questions

Day 2

9 Assemble at site
9.30 Discussion of yesterday's events - Changeover of teams and tasks
9.30 Salvage continues
10 Morning Tea
10.30 Salvage Continues
11.30 Assessment of damage
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Salvage continues with third swap of teams
3 Afternoon tea
4.30 Wind up and clean up
Discussion and Questions
Thanks and Farewells